Tho' fierce be the strug - gle, still let us en - dure,
 Tho' now He is ab - sent, we know not how near,
 The sword and the Spir - it we will grasp in hand,
 With these we may con - quer each foe that we meet,

20

For when it is o - ver the con - quest is sure.
 May be the glad mo - ment when He will ap - pear.
 And like val - iant sold - iers make a des - perate stand.
 And lay down our tro - phies at our Lead - er's feet.

25 Refrain

Then gird on your ar - mor, Gird on your ar - mor,
